STATESBORO - The Sun Belt Conference women's soccer schools announced today that it will be participating in the Soccer United Against Hunger 2020 food drive campaign, powered by the United Soccer Coaches.

The drive is to help support local food banks in this time of need. More than 500 Division I men's and women's soccer programs across the nation are uniting along with soccer communities to take action against hunger. The Sun Belt women's soccer teams have set their goal to raise $500 towards the campaign for the month of June.
